

FAITH - LIFE Group Evangelism Training Level 2
Session 12 ~ Building a Lasting Legacy

Pages 174-175

In God's kingdom a hero is someone who accepts His call to spiritual leadership; responds in obedience by training for the task; ...and faithfully serves Him by pointing the way to Christ, making disciples, and guiding others to become spiritual leaders.

Imitation is the way new heroes are made.

1. Accept the fact that you are a role model.

Pages 176-177

2. Realize that discipleship is caught as well as taught.

3. Accept the responsibility that comes with leadership.

4. Understand that a hero's criterion for success is faithfulness.

True hero status is attained by remaining faithful to God's call in your life.

Every spiritual leader is building a legacy.

Paul stated that Jesus was the cornerstone of all that would be built.

Your challenge is to build in such a way as to pass the tests of time and fire—tests that determine what has enduring value to God's kingdom.

We each must consider the kind of layer we are adding to the Kingdom.

That layer is our legacy and our reward.

Many other people are waiting for a hero—someone who can show them how to be saved and how to live their lives with purpose and meaning.

This semester you have invested your life in two other persons—your FAITH team members.

Now it is time for them to pass on what they have learned to others.

A new generation of leaders should be part of your legacy.
