

FAITH Life Group Evangelism Training Level 1
Session Twelve ~ Your Next Step

The test of a leader is his ability to pass on his knowledge and experience to those who will come after him.

Think about ways you can pass on what you have learned to others.

Every believer is responsible to pass on what he or she has learned so that the number of growing, witnessing believers is multiplied.

Page 173

Three Rs help us better understand what is involved in passing on the things we have learned and experienced.

1. Receive (learn): “what you have heard from me.”

You are always in a position to learn, especially from God’s Word.

You can never be satisfied in your Christian walk.

God wants you to experience Him daily.

2. Repeat (teach): “commit to faithful men.”

You are already a spiritual leader whom God has entrusted with much.

You must share what you have learned with others who can use their training to reach the lost for Christ.

3. Reproduce (train): “who will be able to teach others also.”

Sharing the truth of the Word is important, but it is also important to prepare others to share the truth and to teach others to do the same.

This is what making disciples is all about.

To make disciples, Jesus’ followers must multiply our lives through the lives of others.

Paul reminded Timothy of the stewardship of his call.

Mentors receive their pay by seeing their pupils succeed and continue the cycle, mentoring others.

When we receive a gift, certain realities are associated with that gift.

1. We have been entrusted with a great gift.
2. We are given gifts for a purpose or a reason.
3. Purposeful gifts imply a stewardship.
4. Stewardship always carries accountability.
5. Accountability and stewardship affect areas unrelated to the gift.

Page 175

God has entrusted us with many great gifts.

Certain expectations are associated with each one.

What do we have to pass on to the next generation of FAITH participants?

Page 176

You have something to pass on to the next generation of FAITH learners.

God has given each of us unique experiences and opportunities that only we can share.

Has God allowed you to learn and experience these things for a reason?

Does He want you to pass on to the next generation of FAITH learners the things you have learned?

Many people have yet to be told about Jesus.

Others are waiting to learn how to share Jesus with a friend.

The question is not whether you can help but whether you will help.
