APPALACHIAN MISSION TRIP JULY 5-12

Students who will complete 7-12th grades are invited to join the Student Ministry's Mission Trip to the Appalachian mountains in Kentucky. Students will attend six training sessions in April and May, preparing them for service with the North American Mission Board. For detailed information, please attend the Parent Meeting on February 4th at 8:00pm in the Student Building.

Have you ever wanted to be able to talk to someone about Jesus, but you just didn't feel like you had the ability or courage to do it? If that's the case, then let us help you know what to say and how to say it. FAITH training will help equip you to be able to communicate five simple truths about the Gospel to anyone at anytime. FAITH starts with a special enlistment/explanation event on Sunday February 8th at 5:00pm in the FLC Worship Center. Training will begin on Sunday, February 15th. You can register online at www.championforest.org/lifeu or email Amanda at apolreis@cfbc.org.

If you forgot your food for Souper Bowl, our GA's are collecting money that will go directly for the food pantry at our Missions Centers of Houston (formerly Baptist Mission Centers) in partnership with the Souper Bowl of Caring. Thank you for participating in this 2009 food collection for the less fortunate.

Inasmuch as many have undertaken to compile a narrative of the things that have been accomplished among us, just as those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and ministers of the word have delivered them to us, it seemed good to me also, having followed all things closely for some time past, to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus, that you may have certainty concerning the things you have been taught. In the days of Herod, king of Judea, there was a priest named Zechariah, of the division of Abijah. And he had a wife from the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. And they were both righteous before God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and statutes of the Lord. But they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren, and both were advanced in years. Now while he was serving as priest before God when his division was on duty, according to the custom of the priesthood, he was chosen by lot to enter the temple of the Lord and burn incense. And the whole multitude of the people were praying outside at the hour of incense. And there appeared to him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense. And Zechariah was troubled when he saw him, and fear fell upon him. But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zechariah, for your prayer has been heard, and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you shall call his name John. And you will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth, for he will be great before the Lord. And he must not drink wine or strong drink, and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb. And he will turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord their God, and he will go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready for the Lord a people prepared." And Zechariah said to the angel, "How shall I know this? For I am an old man, and my wife is advanced in years." And the angel answered him, "I am Gabriel. I stand in the presence of God, and I was sent to speak to you and to bring you this good news. And behold, you will be silent and unable to speak until the day that these things take place, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their time." And the people were waiting for Zechariah, and they were wondering at his delay in the temple. And when he came out, he was unable to speak to them, and they realized that he had seen a vision in the temple. And he kept making signs to them and remained mute. And when his time of service was ended, he went to his home. After these days his wife Elizabeth conceived, and for five months she kept herself hidden, saying, "Thus the Lord has done for me in the days when he looked on me, to take away my reproach among people." In the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city of Galilee named Nazareth, to a virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. And the virgin's name was Mary. And he came to her and said, "Greetings, O favored one, the Lord is with you!" But she was greatly troubled at the saying, and tried to discern what sort of greeting this might be. And the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. And behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus. He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. And the Lord God will give to him the throne of his father David, and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end." And Mary said to the angel, "How will this be, since I am a virgin?" And the angel answered her, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the child to be born will be called holy—the Son of God. And behold, your relative Elizabeth in her old age has also conceived a son, and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren. For nothing will be impossible with God." And Mary said, "Behold, I am the servant of the Lord; let it be to me according to your word." And the angel departed from her. In those days Mary arose and went with haste into the hill country, to a town in Judah, and she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. And when Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, the baby leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit, and she exclaimed with a loud cry, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb! And why is this granted to me that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For behold, when the sound of your greeting came to my ears, the baby in my womb leaped for joy. And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her from the Lord." And Mary said, "My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior, for he has looked on the humble estate of his servant. For behold, from now on all generations will call me blessed; for he who is mighty has done great things for me, and holy is his name. And his mercy is for those who fear him from generation to generation. He has shown strength with his arm; he has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts, he has brought down the mighty from their thrones and exalted those of humble estate; he has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent away empty. He has helped his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy, as he spoke to our fathers, to Abraham and to his offspring forever." And Mary remained with her about three months and returned to her home. Now the time came for Elizabeth to give birth, and she bore a son. And her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had shown great mercy to her, and they rejoiced with her. And on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child. And they would have called him Zechariah after his father, but his mother answered, "No, he shall be called John." And they said to her, "None of your relatives is called by this name." And they made signs to his father, inquiring what he wanted him to be called. And he asked for a writing tablet and wrote, "His name is John." And they all wondered. And immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue loosed, and he spoke, blessing God. And fear came on all their neighbors. And all these things were talked about through all the hill country of Judea, and all who heard them laid them up in their hearts, saying, "What then will this child be?" For the hand of the Lord was with him. And his father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit and prophesied, saying, "Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for he has visited and redeemed his people and has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David, as he spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets from of old, that we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all who hate us; to show the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant, the oath that he swore to our father Abraham, to grant us that we, being delivered from the hand of our enemies, might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him all our days. And you, child, will be called the prophet of the Most High, for you will go before the Lord to prepare his ways, to give knowledge of salvation to his people in the forgiveness of their sins, because of the tender mercy of our God, whereby the sunrise shall visit us from on high to give light to those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace." And the child grew and became strong in spirit, and he was in the wilderness until the day of his public appearance to Israel. In those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration when Quirinius was governor of Syria. And all went to be registered, each to his own town. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, from the town of Nazareth, to Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and lineage of David, to be registered with Mary, his betrothed, who was with child. And while they were there, the time came for her to give birth. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in swaddling cloths and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn. And in the same region there were shepherds out in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And an angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were filled with fear. And the angel said to them, "Fear not, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a son for you; you will find a baby wrapped in swaddling cloths and lying in a manger. And suddenly there appeared with them a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men." When the angels went away from them into heaven, they heard it wondered at what the shepherds told

TEACHING FOR LIFE-CHANGE

Calling all current and potential teachers! Listen to what some have said about 'Teaching for Life-Change':

"Although I have been teaching at CFBC for most of the 35 years I have been a member, I can personally say that no matter how long a person has been teaching, he or she can benefit from this class. ... I believe it should be mandatory for all new teachers and strongly encouraged for all teachers. Even if they are as old as me." ---Ardis Havard

"I have been teaching for over 20 years, but this class changed the way I prepare my lessons. ... I encourage all teachers to take this class." ---Tim Hinz

Whether you have been teaching for many years or simply interested in teaching come make a 6-week investment of your time and see what a difference 'Teaching for Life-Change' can make.

YOUR SERVE!

"Where do I fit in?" "Why am I here?" "What can I do to make a difference?" PLACE is a self-discovery class that begins with a comprehensive exploration of the unique gifts and talents of each individual. This Bible-based curriculum helps you discover your personality, spiritual gifts, abilities, passions, and experiences, and see how they all work together to determine your place of ministry. The PLACE process can help you discover how God has uniquely designed you, and it will help you realize His purpose for your life. Come to the PLACE workshop starting on Wednesday February 18 from 6:45-8:00pm in EA-80. Complimentary childcare is provided. Sign-up on the guest registration form or online at www.championforest.org/lifeu.

KENYA MISSION TRIP

There are over 14 million orphans in Africa and 2 million are in Kenya. CFBC is returning to Kenya again this year to minister to these children and participate in other work projects such as working at a refugee camp. The dates of this trip are May 1–10. Our first planning meeting date will be Wednesday, February 4, after worship service in room EA-90. Stop by the Missions booth for more details.

WOMEN'S MINISTRY.

MOMS

The evening meeting of MOMS (Mothers of Many Seasons) will meet this Wednesday, February 4, in AD-318 from 6:45-8:00pm. Dianne Davenport will be speaking to us on "Purity". Mothers of all ages are welcome. We meet to form Christian friendships and discuss Biblical topics. For more information, call Cindy Blackman at 281.743.3430.

BELOVED MINISTRY

The BeLoved Ministry is expanding to include a bible study on Wednesday evenings at 6:45pm in room AD-315. This ministry was created to help women who are hurting to experience God's healing and restoration. We are looking for women to help with this ministry – possibly help with small group leadership, greeting the members and general help. If you can help, please contact Nadyne Simmons 281.528.9848 or Cheryl Roberts 281.635.7620.
